Profile

MSc Business Analytics student at DTU, currently on exchange at Keio University in Tokyo, with a BSc in Artificial Intelligence and Data. At ROCKWOOL Group, I work with stakeholders to turn data into decisions, combining SQL, Python and Power BI to replace manual reporting with automated insights. I am motivated by data-driven decision-making and strategic analysis, with a particular interest in forecasting. I am at my best when combining technical analysis with a clear understanding of the business.
